(FROM OUR PARTICIPANTS)

1) PARTHASARATHI LOGANATHAN, IOB (09840131395)

Dear Sir,

I was one of the participants seated in the front row (grey haired) who is privileged to attend the training program concluded today. (You can recall me when I got the information about your train ticket confirmation) Indeed it was a great honor to feel proud to have an illustrious teacher in you. I would not be exaggerating to share my humblest opinion on your training methodology. After putting up more than 23 years of service, I have never come across such a great personality who has literally digested the encyclopaedia in Banking. Had I met you and underwent such programmes when I was finished my degree course during the early eighties, I would have been a proud senior IAS Officer today.

I truly admire your energy levels and the meticulous planning in the design of your training sessions over the last five days. Though I never attached importance in my career all these years, I now feel confident to reach the highest level in my career with my 15 years of service left.

Sir, you are doing a yeoman service to the society through VIDHYA DHAN and I shall ever be grateful to you in my life time. I am tempted to compose these lines after staying with you for all these five days.

I felt proud to be an Indian When an eminent Economist Dr. Manmohan Singh became our Prime Minister.

- I developed my skills in Journalism after reading the articles of Khushwant Singh
 - I was spellbound to listen to vociferous and open hearted discussions of Navjot Singh Sidhu (Fond of Sidhuism)
 - I got my heart melt and emotions choked when I witnessed the aftermath of 1984 Riots at Delhi in my television screen
 - I earned lot of inputs about our Indian Economy from Dr.Montek Singh Ahluwalia
 - I was chilled with Humour when I used to see Jaspal Bhattis Jokes on Doordarshan during my college days.
 - I used get immersed with spirituality when I learnt the philosophies from Granth Sahib through my Sardar friends at Delhi and Lucknow
 - I now feel fortunate to have earned an Illustrious GURU in DR. G.S.Bhalla. LONG LIVE SIR... I truly SALUTE YOU. Please bear with me sir.
- Thanks and Regards
